

SAF International

Document Title	Document Code	H&S-PLCY-03
Health & Safety Policy	Initial Issue Date	08-03-16
	Revision Status
Criteria	Revision No.	IR	Date	IR
OHSAS 18001:2008	Page 1 of 1

SAF International is committed to provide health & safety management frame work with respect to its context with all applicable health & safety requirements for its workplace, employees, contractors, customers and members of the public as well.

In doing so, SAF International will comply with all relevant Health & safety Legislation, Codes of Practice and Standards.

The commitment to Health and Safety includes:

- ✓ Safeguarding the health of our employees, clients and contractor personnel and the public.
- ✓ The provision of safe working practices.
- ✓ A safe working premises & environment.
- ✓ Preparedness for emergency situations, incident and accident management.
- ✓ Establishing safeguards against all identified risks.
- ✓ Appropriate usage of personal protective equipment's
- ✓ Evaluating health & safety audit results, analysing the cause of non-conformance and evaluating the effectiveness of corrective actions on continual basis.
- ✓ Perform systematic hazard identification and risk management of its operations and facilities.

SAF International is also committed to provide awareness and training to its staff and contractors for effective and efficient IMS implementation and its objectives accomplishment

Chairman